Essay Marking Rubric

	0–3	4–6	7–10
Content	Limited knowledge of the subject; minimal substance, analysis and synthesis; poor thematic development, use of examples and critical interpretation of the material. Interpretation is predictable and/or unfocused.	Some knowledge of the subject; adequate range of analysis and synthesis; limited thematic development and use of examples; mostly relevant to the topic, but lacks detail in critical interpretation of the material. Interpretation shows some originality.	Knowledgeable; substantive, thorough development of the thesis, including appropriate examples. Good use of comparison and contrast, critical inquiry and interpretation. Interpretation is imaginative and nuanced.
Organization & Format	Ideas not well connected; poor organization and transitions; logical sequencing and development lacking; formatting inadequate.	Main ideas clear but loosely organized or connected; sequencing logical but incomplete.	Clear statement of ideas; clear organization (beginning, middle, and end) and smooth transitions. Introduction leads reader into topic; conclusion effectively summarizes main findings and follows logically from the analysis presented; logical and cohesive sequencing both between and within paragraphs. Length, spacing, fonts, margins, numbered pages all carefully adhered to.
Grammar, Vocabulary & Fluency	Low fluency; significant mistakes in the use of complex constructions; frequent grammar and spelling errors, lack of accuracy interferes with meaning.	Adequate fluency; simple constructions used effectively; some problems in use of complex constructions; some grammar and spelling errors.	Fluent expression; accurate use of relatively complex structures; very few grammatical errors. Complex range of vocabulary; accurate word/idiom choice; mastery of word forms and expressions; appropriate level of usage.
